

Paul David Hager

Paul David Hager has engineered and mixed records for superstars including Goo Goo Dolls, Katy Perry, Miley Cyrus, Demi Lovato, Selena Gomez, the Jonas Brothers, Pink, American Hi-Fi, and many more.

In his role as engineer/mixer, Paul has consistently satisfied some of the most successful and discerning producers in the business, including John Fields, Rob Cavallo, Peter Collins, Butch Walker and John Shanks.

In addition to his work in the studio, Paul has toured the world as a “front of house” engineer, mixing live sound for the Goo Goo Dolls, Jane’s Addiction, Miley Cyrus, Avril Lavigne and others.

Creating the sound for a concert requires a different skill set than sculpting the sonics for a record. But Paul sees it as two sides of the same coin. His ideal is to bring the punch and energy of a live show into the studio, and the clarity and depth of the studio to the concert stage. By all accounts, Paul consistently delivers on this ambition.

Some highlights from his career include:

- Goo Goo Dolls – Something for the Rest of Us (E-M)
